

The International Horse Park: The summer of 1996 in Conyers, Georgia was an exciting and Momentous time. Over 600,000 visitors visited the community during the period of the Centennial Olympic Games. Every day of competition at the Georgia International Horse Park was sold out. Spectators and athletes alike marveled at the beauty and grandeur of the Horse Park.

One of the finest facilities in the nation, the stable complex at the Georgia International Horse Park has been home to Olympic champions. Spacious aisles and roomy stalls with high-pitched roofs make this area easily accessible and comfortable year-round. The complex offers electrical outlets, vending machines, ceiling fans and water outlets throughout; clean, well-maintained restrooms; and a beautifully landscaped courtyard at the center of the complex..

Directions: The Georgia International Horse Park is located just 28 miles from the city of Atlanta. Take Exit 82 off Interstate 20 in Conyers. Travel North approximately 4 miles. Turn right onto Centennial Olympic Parkway. Gate A is 2 miles on the right. Follow the signs for the Royal Alpaca Challenge Check-in.
